1. UVOD

Antonín Dvořák jedan je od najutjecajnijih skladatelja 19. stoljeća podrijetlom iz Češke. Uz Bedřicha Smetanu, predstavnik je češkog nacionalnog stila te njihovog folklorne tradicije i kulture. Komponirao je razne glazbene forme, ali posebno su uspješna bila njegova zborna djela, opere te instrumentalna glazba s kojom je ostvario svjetsku slavu. Jedno od njegovih najznačajnijih i najpoznatijih djela su dvije zbirke Slavenskih plesova op. 46 i op. 72 napisane prvotno za klavir četveroručno, a nešto kasnije i za simfonijski orkestar aranžirane od samog skladatelja. Svaka zbirka se sastoji od osam plesova karakterističnih po svojem folklornom ritmu vezanim uz češku kulturu, ali i uz kulturu drugih slavenskih zemalja poput Srbije, Poljske i Ukrajine. Slavenski plesovi se i danas nerijetko nalaze na repertoaru najboljih svjetskih orkestara.

Slavenski ples br. 8, op. 46 je jedan od najpoznatijih i najizvođenijih plesova obje zbirke. Ideju za ovaj ples Dvořák je pronašao u poznatom češkom plesu zvanom Furiant koji je karakterističan po svojem brzom tempu i trodobnoj mjeri.

U ovom radu ćemo pronaći transkripciju ovog plesa priređenu za tamburaški orkestar. Izazov predstavlja relativno malen broj dionica tamburaškog orkestra spram simfonijskog te naravno bogatstvo boje i opsega simfonijskog orkestra kojeg treba dočarati nešto skromniji tamburaški orkestar. Uz izuzetno dobro poznavanje tamburaških instrumenata važno je prepoznati i kvalitete simfonijskih instrumenata te to što bolje spojiti u jednu smislenu cjelinu.

Tambure su žičani trzalački instrumenti načinjeni od drveta te su karakteristične za podneblja Slavonije i Srijema. Ova transkripcija pomoći će u obogaćivanju tamburaške orkestralne literature.

2. O SKLADATELJU I SKLADBI

2.1. BIOGRAFIJA SKLADATELJA

Antonín Leopold Dvořák jest češki kompozitor rođen u Nelahozevesu na Vltavi nedaleko od Praga 08. rujna 1841. godine kao najstariji sin seoskog mesara i gostioničara. Iako je trebao preuzeti posao od oca, mladog Dvořáka je više zanimala glazba te je počeo učiti svirati violinu, tada popularno glazbalo u području Bohemije, kod učitelja Josefa Spitzza. „U šesnaestoj godini (1857.) otišao je u Prag i upisao se u Orguljašku školu, čuvenu zbog odličnih nastavnika. Tu je kroz dvije godine trebao savladati nauku o harmoniji, kontrapunkt strogog i slobodnog stila, nauku o oblicima, vještinu sviranja na orguljama, improvizaciju i dr.“ (Kovačević, 1971; str. 494). Zbog oskudnih materijalnih izvora, ali i gradiva kojeg su ga podučavali, Dvořák počinje svirati violu u orkestru Udruženja sv. Cecilije gdje spoznaje djela ranih romantičara te Wagnera. 1859. završava sa školovanjem te biva prepušten sam sebi. Unatoč lošijoj financijskoj situaciji Dvořák pronalazi vremena, između davanja privatnih sati i sviranja u orkestru, za komponiranje. Dvije godine nakon toga u praško Narodno kazalište vraća se Bedrich Smetana na mjesto direktora te se zalaže za nova strujanja u glazbi pod nazivom – novoromantizam. Usprkos žestokih okršaja vezanih uz pravac mlade i nacionalno obojene češke kulture svi se zalažu za stvaranje češkog narodnog kazališta kao centra i rasadnika češke drame i opere. Slušajući glazbu Wagnera i njemačkog kazališta Dvořák dobiva inspiraciju za pisanjem opere te tako nastaje njegova prva opera pod nazivom Alfred (neizvedena za njegova života). Puno veći uspjeh u češkom kulturnom životu doživjela je njegova druga opera Kral a uhřir nastala 1874. godine. „Međutim, Dvořák je već bio prodro u javnost drugim jednim djelom, Himnusom op. 37 za mješoviti zbor i orkestar, na dva odlomka iz lirske epske poeme V. Haleka Dedicove Bile Hory. Oduševljen patriotski obojenim stihovima, Dvořák je progovorio svojim osobnim glazbenim jezikom, pa je Himnus 1873. u izvođenju impozantnog zbora Hlahola (300 pjevača i veliki simfonijski orkestar) pod vodstvom Dvořákovog prijatelja Bendla doživio spontani uspjeh. Sa Himnusom Dvořák ulazi u drugu etapu svog stvaralaštva“ (Kovačević, 1971; str. 494). U drugoj etapi se gotovo potpuno posvećuje narodnoj poeziji Češke, ali i drugih susjednih zemalja. 1873. godine dobiva austrijsku stipendiju te se počinje intenzivno družiti s još jednim velikanom europske glazbe, Johannesom Brahmsom. Djelom Moravske dvojzpevy (dua za ženske glasove u pratnji klavira) se predstavlja svjetskoj publici. „Sklada Stabat Mater i Zvuke iz Moravske koji su očarali Johannesu Brahmsa te on naređuje svojem izdavaču Fritzu Simrocku da ih objavi“ (Chabenat, 2008; str. 19). Otada se intenzivnije počinje razvijati poslovni odnos između Dvořáka i Simrocka. Usporedno s poslovnim odnosom razvija se Dvořák i kao umjetnik pa nastaju izrazito popularna djela poput Stabat mater za solista, zbor i orkestar 1877. godine. Sljedeće godine Dvořák sklada svoju čuvenu prvu zbirku Slavenskih plesova koje je zamislio prvotno za klavir četveroručno, a nedugo zatim ih je orkestrirao za veliki simfonijski orkestar. Tada, ali i sada Slavenski plesovi predstavljaju jedno od najpopularnijih djela svjetske orkestralne literature. Prema Kovačeviću (1971) Dvořákova djela postaju popularna diljem svijeta jednim dijelom zbog suradnje s izdavačem Simrockom. Postaje iznimno cijenjen u Americi i Engleskoj te dirigira u dvoranama Londona i doživljava golemo poštovanje publike zbog svojih uspješnih djela. 1886. godine Dvořák sklada drugu zbirku od osam Slavenskih pjesama za klavir četveroručno. „Kao i u prvoj seriji teme nisu citati narodnih melodija nego ideje vlastite autorove invencije. Njihova obrada je suptilnija, harmonijski bogatija. U njima nema one eruptivne snage i bujne radosti kojom se odlikuje prva serija. To djelo zrelog čovjeka, sklonog kontemplaciji, kao da je ogrnuto prozirnim velom tihe melankolije“ (Kovačević, 1971; str. 495). Ubrzo nakon izdanja za klavir, Dvořák i ovu zbirku orkestrira za veliki simfonijski orkestar. U godinama nakon Slavenskih plesova doživljava mnoštvo uspjeha s djelima poput Klavirskog kvinteta u A . duru, Četvrte simfonije u G – duru, Requijama za solistu, zbor i orkestar. Postaje profesor kompozicije na Praškom konzervatorijumu te biva izabran za počasnog doktora Univerziteta u Cambridgeu i Pragu. Zbog velikih poslovnih obaveza i putovanja po gradovima Europe komponiranje nerijetko pada u drugi plan. U posljednjoj etapi svojega stvaralaštva Dvořák se okreće nekom novom glazbenom izričaju. „Već u uvertiri Husitska naslućuje se kao podloga muzičke inspiracije vanmuzički elemenat, neka vrsta nepisanog programa koji upravlja razvojem oblika i njegovim zvučnim talasanjem. Tu je Dvořák na putu prema simfonijskoj poemi, kojoj se posvećuje pri kraju svoga stvaralaštva“ (Kovačević, 1971; str. 495). Kako je bio popularan odavno na američkom tlu, uskoro je dobio ponudu na položaju ravnatelja Nacionalne glazbene akademije u New Yorku što je naposljetku i prihvatio. Ondje se upoznaje s melodijskim i ritmičkim karakteristikama crnačkih i indijanskih pjesama. Američki period je za njega bio iznimno plodan u komponiranju pa je tako ondje napisao neka svoja kapitalna djela kao što je Simfonija u e – molu Iz novoga svijeta, gudački kvartet u F – duru, Biblicke pjesni, koncert za violončelo i orkestar u h – molu te sonatina za violinu i klavir u G – duru. „Deveta simfonija nastala je u New Yorku, uzor joj je češka glazba, no preuzima američke utjecaje; Dvořák, doduše, ne primjenjuje nikakve indijanske ili američke melodije, nego piše u duhu ovih američkih pjesama“ (Michels, 2006; str. 495). Nadalje, 1895. godine vraća se u domovinu gdje ponovno postaje profesor kompozicije, a nedugo zatim i rektor Praškog konzervatorijuma. „Gudački kvarteti u As – duru i u G – duru, njegovi možda najličniji, najsavršeniji kvarteti, napisani odmah nakon povratka u domovinu, ujedno su posljednje kompozicije iz oblasti apsolutne muzike koje je Dvořák napisao. Otada se posvećuje isključivo operi i programskoj muzici“ (Kovačević, 1971; str. 495). Pred kraj svog života napisao je još pet simfonijskih poema (Vodnik, Polednice, Zlaty kolovrat, Holoubek i Pisen bohatyrska) i tri opere (Čert a Kača, Rusalka i Armida) čime završava svoj bogati glazbeni opus. „Njega je u prvom redu privlačio muzički (i ne samo muzički) folklor njegove zemlje; no on je u svoj široki interes obuhvatio narodno stvaranje i ostalih slavenskih naroda, o čemu, primjerice, svjedoče Slavenski plesovi. Ali – ovo je za Dvořáka veoma značajno – on skoro nikada nije posezao za gotovim citatima iz folkloru. On se najprije udubljavao u obilježja narodnih tvorevina, a zatim je, redovito uspješno, nastojao stvoriti melodije koje će i melodijskim i latentno-harmonijskim i ritmičkim osobinama pripadati proučenom folklornom području“ (Kovačević, 1971; str. 495). Dvořák je utemeljitelj češke simfonijske, koncertantne, komorne i oratorijske glazbe. Preminuo je 01. svibnja 1904. godine u Pragu od moždanog udara.

2.2. SLAVENSKI PLESOVI

Slavenski plesovi su zbirka od šesnaest skladbi koje je skladao Antonín Dvořák 1878. i 1886. godine. Slavenski plesovi pripadaju najpoznatijim Dvořákovim djelima skladanima za glasovir četveroručno, prije nego što ih je skladatelj preradio za orkestar na zahtjev njemačkog izdavača Fritza Simrocka. Simrock je nakon izdavanja skladbe Zvuci iz Moravske odmah tražio od Dvořáka nove skladbe. Nakon velikog uspjeha Mađarskih plesova Johannes Brahmsa među amaterskim glazbenicima Simrock je prepoznao što publika voli i želi te je predložio Dvořáku kakve skladbe da napiše. Nadahnuti Mađarskim plesovima Johannes Brahmsa, Slavenski plesovi su sabrani u dva niza od osam plesova koji nisu povezani ni tematskom građom ni tonalitetom. Brahmsove plesove Dvořák je uzeo samo kao model, postoje bitne razlike između ta dva djela. Brahms je za svoje plesove iskoristio već postojeće mađarske narodne melodije dok je Dvořák koristio samo karakteristične ritmove slavenske folklorne glazbe. Melodije su bile potpuno njegove. Nedugo nakon što ga je Brahms preporučio Simrocku Slavenski plesovi su postali izrazito popularni diljem Njemačke, a nakon toga i diljem cijelog svijeta pa su tako bili izvođeni u eminentnim koncertnim dvoranama i gradovima poput Dresdena, Hamburga, Nice, Berlina, Londona, New Yorka, Bostona te dakako Praga.

Prva zbirka od osam plesova (op. 46) nastala je 1878. godine pod nazivima: br. 1 u C – duru (Furiant), br. 2 u E – molu (Dumka), br. 3 u As – duru (Polka), br. 4 u F – duru (Sousedská), br. 5 u A – duru (Skočná), br. 6 u D – duru (Sousedská), br. 7 u C – molu (Skočná) i br. 8 u G – molu (Furiant). U ovoj zbirci plesova prevladavaju motivi iz čeških narodnih plesova osim plesa br. 2 koji je nastao prema motivima ukrajinske dumke. Nakon ogromnog uspjeha prve zbirke plesova Simrock nagovara Dvořáka na novu zbirku, međutim potonji je oklijevao jer je smatrao da je skladati istu stvar dva puta zaista teško. Simrock nije odustajao te je Dvořák nakon osam godina počeo pisati novu seriju plesova.

SLIKA 2: Naslovna stranica partiture za orkestar (op. 72)

Za razliku od prve zbirke plesova koji su odicali radošću i zadovoljstvom, u drugoj imamo razna raspoloženja koja se protežu od melankolične atmosfere pa do pomalo i divlje. U drugoj zbirci nailazimo na karakteristične forme i ritmove drugih slavenskih zemalja poput Srbije, Poljske i Ukrajine. Op. 72 nastao je 1886. godine također od osam plesova pod nazivima: br. 1 (9) u H – duru (Odzemek), br. 2 (10) u E – molu (Starodávnyj), br. 3 (11) u F – duru (Skočná), br. 4 (12) u Des – duru (Dumka), br. 5 (13) u B – molu (Špacírka), br. 6 (14) u B – duru (Starodávnyj), br. 7 (15) u C – duru (Kolo) i br. 8 (16) u As – duru (Sousedská). „Te kratke skladbe duboko izvorne, kontrastne po ugođaju i bogato raznolike u slikama, koje dočaravaju, istodobno su i poučne za Dvořákov pogled na nacionalni pravac u glazbi. On se osjećao Čehom, pisao češku glazbu, ali nije izgubio iz vida slavenstvo kao nov, širok pojam, kao kompleks nove umjetničke vitalnosti, koja je u tadašnji razvoj europske glazbe već bila unijela neobično dalekosežne, značajne elemente“ (Andreis, 1989; str. 26). Upravo ta otvorenost prema drugim narodima i njihovim posebnostima, prije svega njihovom karakterističnom ritmu u folkloru, predstavlja Dvořákovu genijalnost i posebnost. Iako su plesovi nastali na temelju narodnih plesnih ritmova te zapisani prvotno za klavir četveroručno, nakon orkestracije postali su sastavni dio orkestralnog repertoara svih simfonijskih orkestara diljem svijeta. Orkestraciju za Slavenske plesove napisao je za sljedeće instrumente: piccolo, dvije flaute, dvije oboe, dva klarineta, dva fagota, četiri roga, dvije trube, tri trombona, timpane, cimbala, bas bubanj, triangl, violine, viole, violončela te kontrabase.

2.3. SLAVENSKI PLES BR. 8, OP. 46

Slavenski ples br. 8 napisan je u g – molu u tempu Presto i predstavlja osmi ples u prvoj zbirci Dvořákových plesova. Jedan je od najpopularnijih i najizvođenijih plesova. Dvořáku je inspiracija za ovaj ples bio češki brzi vatreni ples zvan Furiant. Furiant je ples za u $\frac{3}{4}$ mjeri s karakterističnim ritmom hemiole¹.

Ovaj ples je skladan u formi ronda te tema² traje osam taktova. Glavna karakteristika teme jest kontrast. Kontrastno je to što se u prva četiri takta tema pojavljuje u molu, a zatim gotovo isto u duru. Nadalje, tema se pojavljuje za veliku tercu niže u gornjim glasovima, ali ovaj puta u pratnji valcera. U srednjem dijelu se napetost smiruje te melodija u G – duru u piccolu podsjeća na pastirsku idilu koja ubrzo biva prekinuta ponavljanjem glavne teme. Svi ti dijelovi se u nastavku ponavljaju te dolazimo do Code u kojoj tema modulira³ više puta za pola tona te se tako stvara još veća napetost. Ponovno nas skladatelj vraća u onu pastirsku idilu iz srednjeg dijela skladbe te završava briljantno svoje djelo onako kako je i počeo – temom.

3. PROBLEMATIKA TRANSKRIPCIJE

Svako transkribiranje iz originalne zamisli u neki drugi sastav vuče za sobom određene probleme. Prvi takav problem u slučaju transkripcije iz simfonijskog u tamburaški orkestar jest broj dionica. Simfonijski orkestar je mnogo bogatiji instrumentarijem negoli tamburaški. Osim po broju dionica razlikuju se i po bogatstvu boja i opsega. Simfonijski orkestar je sastavljen od drvenih i limenih puhača, udaraljki i gudača. Tamburaški orkestar je sastavljen od šest različitih instrumenata koji se neznatno razlikuju svojom bojom, ali veoma svojim opsegom. U originalnoj partituri najviši ton je g4, a najniži E kontra. Razlika u opsegu je veća od šest oktava i tu se javlja teškoća u transkribiranju ovog djela jer je najniži ton berde Fis kontra.

SLIKA 7: Detalj iz dionice basa u originalnoj partituri.

Prema: <http://hz.imslp.info/files/imglnks/usimg/3/37/IMSLP225698-SIBLEY1802.17317.a03c-39087009471030score.pdf>

SLIKA 8: Detalj iz transkripcije. (Obratiti pozornost na frazu koja je premještena za oktavu više zbog nedostatka opsega)

Kao što je već navedeno, imamo problem i s premalim brojem tamburaških instrumenata pa često jedan tamburaški instrument zamjenjuje više simfonijskih. Najbolji takav primjer se očituje u dionici bugarije koja zamjenjuje skoro sve limene puhače koji imaju ulogu pratnje u gotovo cijeloj skladbi.

A musical score for three brass sections: 4 Horns in F, 2 Trumpets in F, and 3 Trombones. The score is written for three staves. The top staff is for the Horns, the middle for the Trumpets, and the bottom for the Trombones. The music is in 3/4 time and features a series of chords and melodic lines. The dynamic marking ff is present at the beginning of the section.

SLIKA 9: Dionice limenih puhača na početku skladbe.

SLIKA 10: Dionica bugarije na početku transkripcije.

Nadalje, rasporediti dionice iz simfonijskog u tamburaški orkestar je izuzetno zahtjevno i ne može se reći da postoji jedinstveno rješenje već se mora doskočiti svakoj partituri ili situaciji u toku skladbe na različite načine. Međutim, vrlo je jasno za neke dionice poput berde koja svira dionicu kontrabasa, flaute koju sviraju bisernice ponajviše zbog svojeg opsega, ali i boje. Nerijetko dionice bisernice obuhvaćaju i dionice trube, oboe ili klarineta, a dionice bračeva dionice violina. Tamburaško čelo svira dionice violončela ili fagota, a E brač preuzima ulogu viole iz simfonijskog orkestra. Od proširenih tehnika sviranja korišten je sul H⁴ u dionicama bračeva 1 i 2.

5. ZAKLJUČAK

Ideja rada je proširiti umjetničku tamburašku orkestralnu literaturu, ali i približiti glazbeni romantizam tamburi. Antonín Leopold Dvořák se svijetu predstavio s mnoštvom uspješnih skladbi, ali Slavenski plesovi predstavljaju njegovo najpoznatije i najizvođenije djelo. Slavenski ples br. 8, op. 46 je skladba nastala na temelju češkog narodnog folkloru i njihovog plesa Furiant te Dvořákovih inovativnih glazbenih ideja. Upravo taj folklor je poveznica s tamburom kojoj je kroz povijest bila primarna aktivnost sviranje u folkloru. Tambura je postala dijelom kurikulumu na glazbenim akademijama, ali zbog nedostatka klasične literature potrebno je raditi na transkripcijama kako bi se literatura svih glazbenih razdoblja približila tamburi kao instrumentu. Transkripcija partiture simfonijskog orkestra za tamburaški orkestar nosi sa sobom određene probleme kao što su manjak dionica i opsega. Preduvjet uspješnoj transkripciji je poznavanje instrumenata koji čine tamburaški orkestar, ali i koji čine simfonijski. Treba voditi brigu također i o kontrastima u orkestraciji kako bi izvedba bila što bogatija i zanimljivija kako publici tako i izvođačima. Ovoj transkripciji podjednako je pomogla i originalna partitura skladana za klavir četveroručno, ali i orkestralna.

Detailed description: This is a musical score for a piece titled "Bisernica 1". It consists of 11 staves of music, numbered 85 to 176. The music is written in a single melodic line on a treble clef staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 4/4. The score includes various dynamic markings: p (piano), pp (pianissimo), dim. (diminuendo), ff (fortissimo), fp (fortissimo piano), and rit. (ritardando). There are also performance instructions such as "A tempo" and "sempre più p". The score features several long phrases with slurs, a triplet of eighth notes at measure 109, and a final measure with a fermata and a "4" above it. The piece concludes with a series of sixteenth-note runs at the end of the final staff.

Presto.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of six systems, each with two staves. The key signature is one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is 3/4. The score includes various dynamics: ff (fortissimo), p (piano), pp (pianissimo), fp (fortissimo piano), and f (forte). The music features complex chordal textures, often with multiple notes beamed together, and includes some melodic lines with slurs and accents. The piece concludes with a final fz (forzando) dynamic.

The first system of the piano accompaniment consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. The music begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The upper staff features a melodic line with eighth-note patterns, while the lower staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with quarter notes. The system concludes with a fortissimo (f) dynamic marking.

The second system continues the piano accompaniment. It features a molto crescendo marking in the upper staff, indicating a gradual increase in volume. The melodic line in the upper staff is more active, with slurs and ties. The lower staff continues with a steady accompaniment. The system ends with a fortissimo (f) dynamic.

The third system of the piano accompaniment is marked ff grandioso, indicating a very loud and majestic character. The music is characterized by dense, rhythmic patterns in both staves, with many notes beamed together. The upper staff has a more complex melodic line, while the lower staff provides a solid harmonic base.

The fourth system shows a dynamic shift. It begins with a dimin. (diminuendo) marking, followed by a p dimin. (piano diminuendo) marking. The music becomes more sparse and delicate, with fewer notes and a clear sense of fading volume. The upper staff has a more active melodic line, while the lower staff has a simpler accompaniment.

The fifth system of the piano accompaniment is marked pp sempre (pianissimo sempre), indicating a very soft and sustained character. The music consists of block chords and simple rhythmic patterns in both staves, creating a quiet and atmospheric texture.

The sixth system continues the pp texture. It features a dimin. marking, suggesting a further softening of the sound. The music remains sparse and atmospheric, with a focus on chordal textures and simple rhythmic accompaniment.

The seventh system of the piano accompaniment concludes the piece. It maintains the pp dynamic and features a final melodic flourish in the upper staff. The lower staff provides a simple, steady accompaniment that supports the overall mood of the piece.
